PRESS RELEASE

BRIJESH KALAPPA GETS MINISTER OF STATE RANK

BENGALURU, May 9 (Karnataka Information):

A familiar face representing the Indian National Congress on National TV Channels in English and Hindi, Brijesh Kalappa has been conferred the rank of Minister of State by the State Government. Brijesh Kalappa had been appointed as Legal Advisor to the Government of Karnataka in March, 2015.

Brijesh Kalappa, a former journalist and alumnus from the National Law School of India University continues to write on important blog sites like Times of India Network. He used to write a regular column for CNN-IBN earlier. He appears on Kannada News channels and is recognized not only for his TV appearances, but also for the fact that he has been representing the State of Karnataka in the contentious Cauvery, Krishna and Mahadayi Water Disputes for more than a decade, under the leadership of Fali S Nariman and Anil Divan.

He had earlier been the only chamber junior of Kapil Sibal and left him to start his independent practice once Sibal became a Minister of the Union Cabinet. He has represented high political personages like Arjun Singh, S. R. Bommai besides others. He had earlier been Additional Advocate General of the State of Haryana between 2010-2015.
